Red Hook-Bound Bus Strikes Parked Truck During Storm

A bus bound from Poughkeepsie to Red Hook crashed into the rear of a truck carrying school students on Route 9 near Staatsburg Wednesday evening, causing injury to 28 persons. Sheriff Fred C. Close of Dutchess county reported.

Two persons were severely injured, three more were hospitalized with lesser injuries, and the others were discharged following treatment and examination at the North Dutchess Hospital in Rhinebeck, hospital authorities reported.

The hospital listed the following as being severely injured:

William Porter, Rhinebeck, fractures to both knees, fractured left leg and ankle, and shock.

Mrs. Gladys Wolfering, Rhinebeck, fractured left hip and shock. Both were described "as good as can be expected considering their injuries." Neither was placed on the danger list.

Other injured persons who were admitted to the hospital were:

Frank Simmons, 19, West Hartford, Conn.

Nicholas Zabriskie, 18, New York city

Philip Haight, 17, Old Greenwich, Conn.

All three are students at the Anderson School, Staatsburg. Their conditions are "apparently good," the hospital reported.

During Heavy Storm

The accident occurred during a heavy snowstorm about 6 p. m. Wednesday, Sheriff Close said.

Howard Greene, 47, general manager of the Anderson School, was driving a truck converted into a bus north on Route 9 and when about ready to turn into the Anderson School entrance the truck stalled because of carburetor trouble, the sheriff said. As Greene got out to fix the carburetor, the vehicle was struck in the rear by a Twilight Bus Lines bus carrying 19 passengers.

Roman Jakobson Suffers Fractures to Both Legs When Hit

Roman Jakobson, 52, of 404 West 116th street, New York, received fractures to both legs when he was struck by an automobile as he was walking along Route 9W near Milton about 6:50 p. m. Wednesday, state police at the Highland sub-station reported.

State police said Jakobson was injured when an automobile driven by Alexander Dolan, 45, of Albany, skidded on the icy pavement on a down grade about one and one-half miles south of Milton.

Jakobson was walking north with traffic and Dolan, driving north, applied his brakes to avoid hitting him, according to the report. The car slid off the west side of the highway, striking the pedestrian, and came to rest facing west, the troopers said.

A Vassar Brothers Hospital ambulance conveyed Jakobson to that hospital in Poughkeepsie, where he was admitted for treatment for compound fractures of both legs. Hospital authorities reported this morning that Jakobson is "not on the danger list," but that no definite report of his general condition is available.

State police reported no criminal action was taken as the result of the accident.

President Blocks Any Power Plan

Truman Says New York Proposal to Open St. Lawrence Can't Go Through

Calls It 'Narrow'

Dewey Tells Conference Action Is Hard to Believe

Washington, Dec. 16 (AP)—The Truman Administration has blocked New York state's proposal that it and the Province of Ontario be permitted to develop a St. Lawrence river power project.

A State Department official said the New York Power Authority had been informed that the department will not submit the authority's application for the power construction to the international joint commission.

The decision, he said, was reached after "careful consideration" by the administration and the State Department.

Applications to the joint commission, which regulates the use of international boundary water, can be referred only by the State Department. Application for the power project was filed by New York in July.

Reason that the application was not referred, the department said in an announcement, is because it and the administration feel that the development of the river, involving new navigation facilities as well as power, is more desirable.

This is a view that President Truman has expressed several times in recent months.

The New York power proposal was instigated by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey last spring. His action followed Senate defeat of legislation that would have authorized construction of both the seaway and power phases of the development.

The pre-opening ceremonies were held at the store last night with market officials and local city and county officials taking part. During a radio broadcast short congratulatory speeches were made by Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk, County Attorney Fred Stang, J. J. Hoey, executive vice-president of Shaffer Stores Company, Inc., and others.

The Communists have pushed enough to level cannon on the city itself—but they haven't given impetus to rumors of peace talks between the Reds and General Fu.

Reports from Tientsin said

Claire Chennault's China air-transport company had completed the withdrawal of its personnel and dependents from that North China city. The planes did the flying in a night-long shuttle to Tsin-tao.

Contrary to general reports, Peiping's south field was still operable this morning. The Saint Paul, a plane chartered by the Lutheran Mission, landed there again and took off for Tsin-tao with a load of passengers. (The plane made two trips to Peiping yesterday.)

In Shanghai, Chinese newspapers bannered the "fall of Peiping" in extra which also proclaimed that peace talks in North China were beginning. Shanghai was wild with rumors—among them a totally unconfirmed report that President Chiang Kai-Shek had resigned.

Immediate execution of anyone violating martial law in Peiping was proclaimed by Fu.

Empire Market Opens; Manager Pleased at Crowd

Despite the poor weather conditions, an estimated 200 persons turned out between 8:30 and 10:30 a. m. today for the opening of the Empire Super Market at 61 Albany avenue, according to Charles Turner, market manager.

Turner said he was well pleased with the first day attendance of shoppers, considering the fact that automobile travel was dangerous due to the slippery roads and walking was made miserable by a steady drizzle which began shortly before the scheduled opening time.

One feature of the new market which drew much interest was the self-service meat counter, which Turner said is the first of its kind in this area.

Employes were called upon to explain the operation of this new type of display case, which consists of an open top bus at the same time keeps the meat in a refrigerated condition. Slits in the bottom of the case are provided through which cold air is forced upward keeping the meat at an approximate temperature of 34 degrees.

A similar case is used for self-service of frozen foods, with the added protection of freezing air being forced downward from the sides of the case, keeping the foods at a below-freezing temperature.

The meats which are packaged in transparent cellulose are marked with weight and price.

The packaging is done in a specially equipped room in the rear of the market.

The Reds thus far have thrown only small forces into the attack, evidently reserving their main strength for an attempt to bottle up the city if Gen. Fu Tse-Yi, government commander of North China, decides to fight all the way.

The Communists have pushed north enough to level cannon on the city itself—but they haven't given impetus to rumors of peace talks between the Reds and General Fu.

Capital Stunned

Nanking, Dec. 16 (UPI)—This Chinese capital was stunned today by news that the government's commander in the north was allowed the Communists to reach Peiping's walls. Chiang Kai-shek's military propagandists and other quarters had promised that Gen. Fu Tso-Yi would defend the entire Peiping-Tientsin area indefinitely. Most observers here expressed belief that some understanding was being negotiated between the Reds and General Fu, which would be almost certain to speed the situation in Nanking to a climax. President Chiang's top advisers already have urged him to quit and let others try to talk peace with Communists.

New York Snow Melts

New York, Dec. 16 (UPI)—Rising temperatures today were expected to remove the last of New York's four-inch snow from the streets before night. Throughout the 40s today, with occasional rain, followed by sunshine tomorrow.

last night, 1,900 men were engaged in digging the city out of the first substantial snowfall of the season. They were aided by temperatures which rose steadily after midnight. Today's forecast predicted temperatures in the mid 40s today, with occasional rain. Gusts up to 30 miles an hour were expected tonight. The weather bureau said these gusts would be strong enough to turn umbrellas inside out if they catch you turning a windy corner.

The word "hymn" was originally used by ancient Greeks for a song or poem in honor of gods, heroes or famous men.

FIRE AT CHRISTMAS TIME

Fire is likely to strike anywhere. But the home is the most popular single target. To make certain that a Christmas tree fire will not turn holiday joy into tragedy, the National Safety Council offers suggestions:

As soon as possible after buying the tree, cut off the base of the tree diagonally and cover the base with water.

Keep the tree indoors as short a time as possible, with the base always under water. Replenish the water frequently. Increasing the humidity of the room will help keep the tree from drying out.

Place the tree away from fireplaces, powerful electric lights, radiators or other sources of heat, and avoid the use of candles. Keep tinsel and other metallic decorations away from light sockets.

Turn off the tree lights when no one is to be in the room for any length of time.

Get rid of Christmas gift wrappings at once and use only artificial "snow" and decorations of the flameproofed or non-combustible type.

Fire Chief Murphy gives a timely warning about trees in public places. In hotels, churches, hospitals and other places of assembly and in hallways of offices and buildings, the location of the Christmas tree is of vital importance.

The tree should not be located near any stairway or elevator, which would provide an upper draft.

It should not be placed near entrance doors or otherwise block exits.

A definite inspection should be made by someone in authority to determine whether the tree should be left up for a longer time, and whether it should be lighted again.

On the question of wearing flammable, flimsy costumes and dresses of net or gauze-like fabrics, the chief states that they can be made flame-resistant, with the following solution: Nine ounces of borax, four ounces boric acid and one gallon of water. The fabric should be well saturated with the solution, then rung out by hand and hung to dry.

With increased smoking among shoppers, the fire chief also calls attention to the great danger of smoking in local stores filled with Christmas shoppers. He recommends that shoppers refrain from smoking in the stores during the holiday rush and also that store managers post "No Smoking" signs.

The queer and near-queer people of Boston are the subject of Cleveland Amory's recent book, "The Proper Bostonians". It is only by the accident that Boston is well known that it is a profitable locale for such a book. Every community has its strange inhabitants, whose doings intrigue the curious.

A NEW DANGER

Is it man's destiny to perish from poisoned air? The Carnegie Institution of Washington, no alarmist body, says that the air is gradually becoming polluted by foreign gases. Some come from industrial plants, some from volcanoes. There are coal soot, and gas from the exhausts of automobiles. The effect of such gases is not limited to the areas where they arise, but spreads over the land and reaches far out to sea. Thus it is not primarily a problem of large industrial areas alone. Tucson, Ariz., for instance, has in the last few years shown great increase in the pollution of its atmosphere. There are similar reports from other countries.

Industrial science has created most of these dangers. The scientists should find a remedy.

The Klondike is only vaguely remembered, but the uranium rush seems to be arising. There is no telling how many other romantic ways to riches are to come.

THE ART OF CENSORSHIP

The Memphis board of censors has banned the motion picture, "A Song Is Born", from showings in that city. The reason given was that the film includes a scene in which people of white and dark skins are mingled, without segregation.

It must come as a shock to those reared in the carefully shielded atmosphere of

BIPARTISAN COOPERATION

Over the week-end in Washington it became increasingly clear from all sorts of indications that there is room in the United States for bipartisan relationships within the two-party system. This does not mean that Republicans need to flop about in that noman's land of ideas generally called liberalism, where principle disappears in the shadows and opportunism becomes a charming lodestone. It does mean that in the critical state of continuing war, an area exists in which bipartisan or even non-partisan attitudes are essential for the country's welfare.

The following subjects may well be moved from the sphere of partisan consideration:

1. The foreign policy of the United States. The bipartisan policy, as practiced since 1944, largely under the aegis of John Foster Dulles, has been more successful than was assumed possible at the start. This does not mean that no criticism either of policy or its conduct should exist. Every citizen of this country has the legal and moral right to criticize or even oppose any policy of our government in time of war as in time of peace. This is an inalienable right of citizenship.

However, once the policy is formed, after due reference to the leadership of both parties in and out of Congress, it is possible to face the world with a united front. Whenever this method has been employed, it has been productive of great good. In fact, the employment of a bipartisan personnel at the United Nations and at international conferences has given strength to American attitudes.

2. A bipartisan defense policy. In this realm, the progress has been small, principally because only Secretary of Defense Forrestal has promoted it, with little support in or out of Congress. Yet, if there is to be a bipartisan foreign policy, the defense policy must be co-ordinated with it.

The national defense cannot be a matter of risk. Competition among the services, while wholesome at stages where competition increases ingenuity and fervor, becomes dangerous at the political level. The unification of services requires even a stiffer law and the retention of civilian control is often imperiled by partisan politics, which stimulates personal "empire-building".

This question needs to be viewed with the utmost objectivity, as what is involved is our national existence and the lives of our sons. There is room for a wide latitude of bipartisan action in this sphere. There can be no question as to the requirement; the doubt arises from what we can afford to expend without wrecking our economy.

3. The report of the Hoover Committee. This committee for the reorganization of the executive branch of government is by its nature and organization bipartisan. It consists of members appointed by the President, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House. Its membership is bipartisan. Its work has been non-partisan; its task forces have been appointed without regard to party membership.

The difficulty that this committee faces is the natural disinclination of those in office to vote themselves out of office or to find themselves being reduced from primary to subordinate positions agreeable. On many matters, the committee is in agreement and reports on such subjects are beginning to be issued. It is most encouraging that the report on the reorganization of the State Department and the conduct of the foreign policy has been made available without objection. This means that two such divergent personalities as Herbert Hoover and Dean Acheson have been able to join in the committee proposal.

On some matters, there may be serious disagreements among the committee members, resulting in a majority and a minority report. It can only be hoped that such a few in number, what is important, is that when these reports and legislative proposals come to Congress, they should not be batted about solely on partisan ground. The Chambers-Hiss case, if it proves nothing else, does force the conclusion that the State Department is badly organized, sprawling, chaotic. It must be made tact. The same is probably true of most departments, because they have grown up under functional acts of Congress without organic structural consideration. This ought to be corrected about every decade.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

FOOD AND BLOOD PRESSURE

During World War II, with food restrictions enforced in many countries, research physicians were given an unusual opportunity to study the effects of a reduced diet on the blood pressure.

In the "Journal of the American Medical Association", Drs. Joseph Brazeak, Carlton E. Chapman and Aneel Keys, Minneapolis, report the effect of a starving and restricted diet on the weight and blood pressure of 24 young men previously normal in all respects. They were carefully observed for three months, after which their food intake was greatly reduced for an additional six months.

The daily intake of the reduced diet was slightly less than 1,600 calories. Under the reduced diet the average loss in weight was about 24 per cent for the six months' period. In line with this loss of weight were striking decreases in blood pressure, pulse rate and basal metabolic rate (rate at which the body processes work).

The systolic blood pressure dropped about 11 per cent, and the diastolic pressure by nearly 20 per cent. The pulse or heart rate went down to 37 (from 72) and the basal metabolism rate to 60 (from 100).

It cutting down greatly on food caused this drop in weight, blood pressure and metabolic rate, what were the effects of the reduced diet in those with high blood pressure?

From all parts of Europe reports have come showing that, owing to the greatly reduced diet there, the number of cases of high blood pressure causing heart and brain strokes admitted to hospitals was greatly reduced. The above information does not mean that all with high blood pressure should go on starvation or greatly reduced diets. But it does mean that when they are overweight, they should gradually reduce their food intake—especially table salt—until they get down to, or nearly to, normal weight for their height and body build.

In all cases of high blood pressure (above 140 systolic and 90 diastolic); there are certain foods that should be avoided or greatly reduced in amount. Some of these are: (a) preserved, canned and spiced meats, goose, pork, mackerel; (b) peppers, onions, garlic, corn, cucumbers; (c) preserves, spiced and pickled fruits; (d) alcoholic drinks, sweet drinks, malt drinks; (e) pastry, pies, gravies, sauces, hot bread and rolls, cream soups.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Washington—Grover Whalen, New York's famous and popular greeter, is sole witness to the only conversation between President Truman and Governor Dewey during the recent campaign.

It occurred at the opening of Idlewild Airport last June, when Whalen introduced Truman to Dewey. On this occasion Truman made one of his proverbial off-the-cuff remarks.

"Governor," he said, "what do you want to get into the White House for? There's nothing there but trouble."

Common-Sense Congressman

Senator-elect Karl Mundt of South Dakota has more prestige and common sense than any other member of the House Un-American Activities Committee. Unlike some of his colleagues he knows the difference between right and wrong.

Writing to a South Dakota constituent about the knock-down, drag-out tactics of the committee, Mundt frankly admitted:

"I agree with you about the procedural methods of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. For your information, Congressman Nixon of California and I have been working for some weeks on a new set of rules to govern the procedure of our committee. Just as soon as Chairman Thomas is back, we expect to have the committee approve these procedures."

"Thomas," continued Mundt, "is a hard fellow to control, as he is a bit of a publicity seeker, and is also of a highly impulsive nature."

While he usually has the facts pretty well in hand before he speaks up in public, still I do not like his method of making a public statement about an individual until he has had the opportunity to be heard before the committee. I feel certain that the abuses of which you rightfully complain are going to be corrected within the next two or three weeks."

Mundt in Grandstand

Not merely three weeks, but nearly twelve months have passed since that letter was written. In the interim, Parnell Thomas has been relegated to the sidelines, and here's what's been happening under the two congressmen—

Another backstage move which the public didn't know about occurred when the committee called ex-State Department official

Henry J. Wadleigh.

During an hour or so of grilling, Wadleigh refused to say anything.

It was 12 days later that the Baltimore attorneys for Hiss and Chambers called the Justice Department and revealed that secret State Department documents had turned up in the Hiss-Chambers slander suit. Hard-working Alex Campbell, assistant attorney general, went to Baltimore that same day.

It was 21 days later, Dec. 1, that alert Robert Stripling, attorney for the Un-American Activities Committee, first heard about the secret papers. He has since admitted that he learned about them through an item by Jerry Katz in the Washington Post.

Immediately he telephoned Whittaker Chambers, the ex-Communist agent, and asked him to stop in when he was next in Washington. Chambers, an old friend, did so, and promised to get some "additional documents for the Un-American Activities Committee."

This was done via the pumpkin at the Chambers farm in Westminster, Md. It looks now that Forrestal was invited one month ago, but declined. Then he was asked to testify before the committee because of Section 3486, Title 18 of the U. S. Code, which states: "No testimony given by a witness before either house or before any committee of either house shall be used as evidence in any criminal proceeding against him in any court."

Campbell has also warned the Un-American Activities Committee officially and by formal letter that testimony before witnesses before it might prevent the Justice Department from using this evidence later in criminal prosecution.

However, the nonpublicity-seeking

Mundt and Nixon have continued their frantic search for the heads just the same.

Merry-Go-Round

Some guests wondered why

Secretary of Defense Forrestal wasn't at the Gridiron Dinner last week when most other cabinet members were. Inside reason was that Forrestal was invited one month ago, but declined. Then he was asked to testify before the committee because of Section 3486, Title 18 of the U. S. Code, which states: "No testimony given by a witness before either house or before any committee of either house shall be used as evidence in any criminal proceeding against him in any court."

Code, which states: "No testimony given by a witness before either house or before any committee of either house shall be used as evidence in any criminal proceeding against him in any court."

Some Microfilm Ruined

After the Un-American Activities Committee got the microfilm, however, it lost two rolls—due to amateur bungling. Instead of sending the film to the F.B.I. to be developed, the committee was so anxious to keep its pumping discovery out of Justice Department hands that it sent the film to a friend in the Veterans Administration.

These two rolls were exposed to the light and are now worthless.

Meanwhile, D. M. Ladd, assistant F.B.I. director, went up to the Un-American Activities Committee and asked that the microfilm be turned over to him. Assistant attorney general Campbell made the same request. So did Attorney General Tom Clark. No result for one whole week. Finally, the nonpublicity-seeking Mundt and Nixon yielded.

Another backstage move which the public didn't know about occurred when the committee called ex-State Department official

Dr. L. E. Sanford, local health officer, reporting whooping cough prevalent in the city.

Postmaster William R. Kraft reported that the Christmas rush of mail had not started.

The Colonials defeated the Philadelphia Hebrews in an American Basketball League contest 43-20 at the auditorium.

Exceeded Expectations

handled by Labor governments. He said the "Labor" leaders of Western Europe are wary because concentration camps have made them "bitterly suspicious of those who may be undisclosed agents of predatory interests."

"Well, the most brutal, ignorant and greedy of the predatory interests that we have are the very group of people that Douglas was exhorting to assume the spokesmanship for our country abroad and I thought he ought to know and I think he damn well does."

Upon being advised of his constitutional rights and warned that all he said might be used against him, Justice William O. Douglas unto me did say: "I was impressed with the opportunity the labor group had in this country. When I say that, I don't mean any particular union" as between the C.I.O. and the A.F. of L. or independent group. "Opportunity to step up front and take the lead in the battle."

In his use of the word "battle," meant a great showdown, preferably political; although you never can tell when it might boil over, between Kremlin Communism and the American way in the countries on the other side of the Iron Curtain."

"I was arguing," he said, "for labor to step up to its responsibilities and use its influence and its weight on the side of the democracies. At this time it is in a strong position to do it because those Labor Governments come from the same kind of environment of labor people (as our unionists) and I thought the place to say it was before a labor group."

I told him our unionists were not fit representatives of this country abroad because they had absolutely no respect for the inherent human rights and constitutional liberties of our people, and moreover never were elected to their jobs by our people. Grafters, slugs, dictators, gangsters. And I said he certainly ought to know that their union constitutions were violent af- fronts to the very concept of American government which he was calling on them to sell these Europeans.

"Maybe that's true," Mr. Douglas said. "But he said he hadn't studied their constitutions any anyway. He couldn't very well go into that, because we get this stuff before us all the time—internal union rows and rows between individual members."

"Well," I said, "Maybe you shouldn't have mentioned it in the first place."

"Maybe that's true," he said. "But I'm not orthodox. I pay the same taxes as anyone else and if it doesn't interfere with my work, of course—"

Sentence seems to be unfinished here. Something about his right to have his say.

What do you make of such a fellow? He doesn't study their constitutions, which are notorious like their conduct, and he couldn't discuss them anyhow because some case might come up calling for his fresh, unprejudiced judgment. But closing his mind to their reputations he can go before their convention as a Justice, nevertheless, and conjure them to extend to another continent the same corruption that has polluted all that they have touched in their own United States of A. (Copyright, 1948, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Jersey May Send Law Enforcement Officers to School

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 16 (UPI)—State law enforcement officers may have to go to school next year.

Attorney General Walter D. Van Riper announced yesterday that a special state-sponsored school has been proposed as a move "to raise the standard of law enforcement" in New Jersey.

Van Riper made the announcement after meeting with division heads of the new State Department of Law and Public Safety. Until Feb. 4, he will direct the new department, coming into existence Jan. 1 under the state reorganization program.

The division heads agreed, Van Riper said, on "an attempt to raise the standard of law enforcement by increasing the efficiency of their officers." He added there was also agreement to have a uniform test for all appointees to the department's law enforcement agencies.

Van Riper's new department will consolidate his present law department with the State Motor Vehicle Department, State Police Department, Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission, and Weights and Measures Department. Professional licensing boards and the tenement house supervision office will also be included in the new set-up.

Twenty per cent of the children who graduate from grade school have defective sight.

21 Persons Routed In $125,000 Fire

Oneida, N.Y., Dec. 16 (AP)—Two buildings were gutted and two others damaged early today in a fire that injured one fireman and caused damage estimated at about $125,000.

Twenty-one persons living in second floor apartments escaped as the flames swept through several stores in a downtown block. Several other stores and an office were damaged by smoke and water.

The flames gutted the three-story Garvin building and the three-story Snyder building. Firemen said the principal damage to the Goldstein building and to the Carry and Walker building, both two-story structures, was from smoke and water.

Thomas Brownell, a fireman from nearby Sherrill, was overcome by smoke. His condition was reported as "good."

Oneida Fire Chief Frank Cheeseman, who estimated the damage, said the fire was controlled after a three-hour fight.

Cheeseman said cause of the blaze had not been determined. Hypnotism has been known for centuries, to the Persian magi and Indian yogis and fakirs, among others.

County Publishes New Pamphlet on Winter Sports

A new "winter sports in Ulster County" pamphlet has been published by the Ulster County Publicity Committee and is being circulated through ski clubs, transportation companies, travel bureaus and New York city department stores. A total of 10,000 have been sent out for distribution.

The pamphlet this year is printed in an attractive blue ink with a very attractive front cover containing a typical ski scene. On the title page is the wording "The Catskill-Shawangunk" Mounts in Area—16 to 180 miles from New York city. On the back page is a road map indicating the resort areas in the county with a notice to look for snow reports in the New York newspapers and on radio ski programs. A ski information center is maintained at the New York State Department of Commerce, 342 Madison Avenue, New York, or information may be obtained from the Ulster County Publicity Committee, court house, Kingston.

Inside the folder is a wealth of information about winter sports.

areas of the county including information in regard to the Phoenicia, Highmount, Pine Hill, Ellenville, Rosendale, Woodstock, Saugerties and other centers with general information in regard to accommodations, transportation and accessibility of resort areas.

There are also several photographs of recreation areas and numerous action "shots" of ski areas, ice fishing and other forms of winter sports.

A table of highway distances to the ski areas from New York, Albany, Poughkeepsie and Newburgh appear in the pamphlet.

along with a list of connecting routes to Ulster county by way of Hudson river bridges.

Junta Runs Government

Guatemala, Dec. 16 (AP)—A

Junta of five young men has taken over El Salvador's government in the fifth successful army uprising in Latin America of 1948. "Absolutely calm reigns in all the country and the people applaud the action of the army," said a bulletin broadcast from San Salvador, the capital of the little republic.

Telegraf Demands Autonomy for Germans in West

Berlin, Dec. 16 (AP)—The Socialist newspaper Telegraf today demanded self-government for Germans in the western sectors of Berlin.

The British-licensed newspaper, the most powerful Socialist organ in Germany, reminded the three western powers that Berliners had rebuffed Communism in the December 5 election and were "predestined to restore German sovereignty."

Apparently taking its cue from the agitation of the Social Democratic Party in western Germany for ending Allied interference in German internal affairs, the paper declared:

"The allied administration of Berlin must gradually but steadily become an Allied control."

ESOPUS

Esopus, Dec. 15 — The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Esopus Fire Department held its annual Saturday night dinner.

Mrs. Nellie Prendergast and daughter, arrived in the country recently from Norway to visit her brother, A. O. Nelson and Mrs. Nelson. It was their first meeting in 48 years.

Mrs. A. R. Mott who has been ill is reported to be convalescing at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Coutant were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shieligher in Port Ewen.

Mrs. H. Baker spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McKinley in West Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bowman of High Falls were the weekend guests of Mrs. Bowman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hammell.

General Farm Outlook

Ithaca, N. Y., Dec. 16 — Price competition in the potato market may be "more active" in the 1949 crop than in New York state than in any year since the war.

That's the hint by economists of the New York State College of Agriculture that prices paid to the state's potato farmers next year probably will decline from 1948 levels.

That's the hint by economists of the New York State College of Agriculture that prices paid to the state's potato farmers next year probably will decline from 1948 levels.

Prices for the state's apples and pears probably will drop slightly because of higher production.

The report states: "Another negative indication and lower support prices are expected for the 1949 (potato) crop." The acreage of potatoes outside the price support program may be larger in 1949 than last year.

And it continues with this advice to potato growers:

"Growers who get high yields of good-quality potatoes at below average cost per bushel will do well to continue growing potatoes, but those who get below average yields and have high costs may well look for some other crop or livestock enterprise better adapted to their situation."

In 1949 more attention will need to be given to reestablishing market outlets for potatoes through commercial channels than in recent years."

With regard to other vegetables the report says that costs of production continue to rise and prices received may not keep pace with costs."

Keresman Named
Convention Head

Peter Keresman was appointed as general chairman of the 1949 Kingston Volunteer Firemen's convention committee at a recent meeting of the Kingston Volunteer Firemen's Association. He was given authority to appoint and today announced the names of those who will serve on the general committee. Soon after the holidays the committee will meet and make plans for the 1949 convention of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association to be held in Kingston on July 28, 29 and 30. Keresman stated that the Chamber of Commerce office will serve as the convention committee headquarters.

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk will be honorary chairman of the general committee and Vincent G. Connolly will be the treasurer. Other members are Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy; Fire Commissioners Frederick C. Harder, Henry F. Kelsch and Richard Risseley; the following officers of the Kingston Volunteer Firemen's Association: Augustus J. Bunse, president; Raymond W. Radell, secretary and Edwin L. Kolts, treasurer; Morton Finch, president of the county association; also John N. Cordis; Thomas T. Coughlin; James E. Martin; James L. Rose; Morris Kalish; Keating and Frank J. O'Neill.

The general committee will make plans for the business meetings and entertainment on Thursday and Friday, July 28 and 29 and the big parade on July 30. This committee will coordinate the work of numerous other committees: the chairmen of which will be named at the first meeting. The support of a large number of workers will be needed to carry out the duties and activities of this convention. The general committee is anxious to make this one of the best conventions ever held by the group.

Quill Wants R.R.

New York, Dec. 16 (AP)—Michael J. Quill, international president of the C.I.O. Transport Workers Union, wants New York state to acquire and operate the Long Island railroad, ending what Quill calls "20 years of mismanagement." Such a move would be hailed "not only by the people of Long Island but by all the people of New York." Quill said in a letter to Mike R. Maltbie, chairman of the State Public Service Commission. The letter, revealed by Quill's office yesterday, urged that the commission recommend the railroad acquisition to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and the Legislature.

Fight to Finish
New York, Dec. 16 (AP)—A "fight to the finish" against the United Restaurant Liquor Dealers of Manhattan, Inc., has been voted by 1,000 members of Local 15 of the A.F.L. Bartenders Union. The action was taken last night at a meeting which Harry Bakst, Local 15 strike committee chairman, said was attended by both strikers and non-strikers. The bartenders have been involved in a work stoppage for 11 days. The union seeks to have the six-day, 48-hour work week reduced to a five-day, 40-hour week, with compensation of the $60 minimum weekly wage. The bartenders contend the employers refused to negotiate.

Actress Says Her Firing Is Relief

Hollywood, Dec. 16 (UPI)—After a lousy $5,600 a week or so for everything, actress Teresa Wright got fired yesterday by her boss, movie producer Sam Goldwyn. Goldwyn called Miss Wright "uncooperative." She had he said, refused to go to New York to publicize a picture in which she co-starred.

Miss Wright said she couldn't make the trip because of ill health. She countered that she accepted the firing "without protest and in fact with relief."

"The type of contract standardized between players and producers," she said, "is, I feel, antiquated in form and abstract in concept."

"I am determined to never set my name to another one."

"We in the acting profession are to blame for accepting in our eagerness to work agreements under which we waive the proper equities prevailing at law in every other industry. Such contracts say, in effect, we have no privacies which you producers cannot invade, trade us like cattle, boss us like children..."

"If the time has come for anything new in the motion picture business, it has come for actors and actresses to stop being tax collectors and to say 'pay me less if you like but treat me with respect.'

"In the future," Miss Wright added, "I shall gladly work for less if by so doing I can retain my claim upon the common decencies without which the most glorified job becomes intolerable, but with which the most humble can be carried out with dignity."

Tillson Volunteers

A large contingent of members attended the last regular meeting this year of the Tillson Volunteer Fire Co., Inc., held in its headquarters on Tuesday evening, December 13. Four new members were added to the roster. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Don't smoke in stores during the holiday rush.

Vaudeville at Broadway Theatre

Rowena Hollings and Johnny Masters, who later this month will start rehearsals for the new Sam Grisman Broadway musical "Midnight Revels," will head the five-act "professional" vaudeville bill at the Broadway Theatre Friday and Saturday, December 17 and 18, it was announced today by R. W. Case.

Miss Hollings, a statuesque six foot blonde, and Masters, a good looking but small young actor, present a comedy dance act entitled "Ridiculously Rough House." This will be their final vaudeville engagement before starting work army service, mostly overseas, will act as master of ceremonies, and present his own song and humor routine.

Fifth act will be the Illinois Sisters, acrobatic and tap dancers, who just finished an engagement at the Apollo Theatre in Harlem, after appearing with the Duke Ellington stage show.

PORT EWEN

Port Ewen, Dec. 16—Donations of food for the Christmas Cheer boxes which will be distributed by the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 1208, Town of Esopus, to families in the township are now being accepted in several stores. Boxes for these donations have been placed at Jum's Market, Coniglio's Market and Smith's Hollywood night spots. Miss Hay-

Rita Sails for Europe

New York, Dec. 16 (UPI)—Actress Rita Hayworth is on her way to Europe aboard the liner Britannic on which Aly Kahn, son of a wealthy Moslem leader, Aga Khan, also is a passenger. The ship sailed yesterday. Recent reports have suggested a romance between the pair. They were frequent companions recently at Hollywood night spots. Miss Hayworth, accompanied by her four-year-old daughter, Rebecca Welles, and her secretary, declined to be interviewed. Her secretary said Miss Hayworth has no plans but just wants to see Europe in the winter.

Dewey Says Old Methods Block New York Housing

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 16 (AP)—Governor Dewey says "anti-qualified" building codes are "blocking" housing in New York, and must be modernized.

Dewey said yesterday he hoped the 1949 legislature would "meet the problem head on" and get us into the 20th century and out of the 17th century where our building codes now are.

After a meeting with administration leaders, the governor told a news conference he had found "conclusive proof" that modernization and simplification of the localized code system was necessary.

He said as they "developed over the years, building codes were antiquated approaches, often in the interest of special groups."

He contended that some local building boards liked "to keep things as they are because they're familiar with them now and don't want to learn something new."

He said there were 178 different codes throughout the state and "no two of them are alike."

Many of them, he continued, require the use of more material for various types of construction than is recommended by recognized building experts.

These, he added, are "examples of the prohibition against housing that has been built up in this state."

The meeting was attended by Senator William F. Condon of Yonkers, chairman of the joint legislative committee on statewide building codes; Public Works Superintendent Bertram D. Tallamy and State Housing Commissioner Herman T. Stichman.

Dewey told the news conference Condon had agreed to work out proposed legislation for the 1949 legislature with his committee member and with Tallamy, Stichman and Charles D. Breitel, Dewey's counsel.

Dewey said the men estimated it would take at least two years to write a state-wide code.

"That's too long," he added.

The governor said he wanted to solve some of the problem during the next legislature.

One Democratic assemblyman, Nathan A. Lashin of the Bronx, tried to attend the conference, but he was not admitted.

Last secretary of the joint legislative committee on statewide building codes said he had been invited by Condon.

James C. Haggerty, Dewey's press secretary, said only Condon, Stichman, Tallamy and "a couple of experts" had been invited.

N. Y. Young Republicans Censure Party Leaders

The New York Young Republican Club says The Herald Tribune approved a resolution Tuesday night censuring the "present national leadership" of the party and recommending a convention next year to entice a mass-appeal policy for the common welfare. It was one of three resolutions passed at a monthly meeting at the National Republican Club, 54 West Fortieth street.

Henry V. Poor, club president, was chairman.

The club also approved measures saying that Mayor William O'Dwyer has shown himself "un-qualified" to hold office because of his appointments and dealings with the Left Wing American Labor party, the club will work for any "effective servant" regardless of political affiliation.

Speaking to datum Mayor O'Dwyer, Senator Robert F. Wagner, Democrat, of New York whose illness has been the subject of much concern in the last two years, also was urged in a third resolution to submit his resignation from the Senate. The resolution recalled that Mr. Wagner has been present in the Senate only eighteen days during the entire 227 days of the Eightieth Congress.

The measure offering criticism of the Republican national leadership was passed by a slim vote of 39 to 30 and only after a somewhat more general resolution was debated.

These, he added, are "examples of the prohibition against housing that has been built up in this state."

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Germer, Jr., and son, Arthur of Brooklyn, were the weekend guests of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Terwilliger and son.

Mr. and Mrs. John Billiar and daughter, Genevieve, Mrs. DeWitt Kearney and Mrs. Andrew Terwilliger spent Wednesday in Newburgh. Miss G. Billiar returned to Connecticut from Newburgh by bus.

Trades With Student

Carthage, Ill., (AP)—Dr. Erland Nelson, president of Carthage college, and John Bickers, a junior, traded places for a day. The proxy, chewing gum and wearing a pull-over sweater, went to classes. The pupil, stiffish in a starched white shirt and conservative suit, ran the front office.

Commented Bickers: "Being president is easy. I could call on three secretaries to do the work."

Countered Nelson: "A student's life is gay and carefree. I didn't realize our coeds were so pretty."

Christmas Cheer Fund
The following letter from Miss Helena Clearwater explains the local Christmas Cheer Fund:

Editor: The Freeman:

As chairman of the Christmas Cheer Committee, I feel that the people of Kingston, who are contributing so generously to the Christmas Cheer Fund, are entitled to know where the committee obtained the names of 880 needy children.

About the middle of November a notice was published in the paper and a broadcast on the radio for parents of needy children to write a letter addressed to Christmas Cheer in care of the Mayor, stating names and ages of the children. We received 174 letters. A card was sent to each church in the city, also to the principal of each school to submit names of needy children. We received a total of 377 names from schools 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and St. Mary's School.

The list of names were checked with welfare and then rechecked. It is Christmas time! The committee hopes to have one new article of clothing (no snowsuits, boots or shoes), one new toy, a box of candy and an orange for each child. We are not distributing money, baskets of food or turkeys to anyone.

Thank you Mr. Editor.
Respectfully submitted,
HELENA CLEARWATER,
Chairman of the Christmas Cheer Committee.

Fire Destroys Highland Garage

Highland, Dec. 16—Fire which destroyed a two-car garage owned by Vincent Hopper on Tillson avenue, Wednesday, about 8:15 a. m., resulting in an estimated damage of from $2,000 to $3,000, the Highland Fire Department reported today.

According to the report, Hopper operates a small backyard repair shop. There were no cars in the garage at the time of the fire. Members of the Highland Fire Department responded to the call.

Reports Plane Circling

An Ulster Park woman notified local police at 10:20 p. m. Wednesday that she had heard a plane circling over the area near her home for about a half hour and she feared it was lost and having motor trouble. The sheriff's office was notified and contacted Stewart Field, Newburgh. Authorities at the latter said that all flights in the east "military and commercial" had been grounded, and that the plane reported heard at Ulster Park must have been privately owned. No further reports were received.

Ford Plant Damaged

Detroit, Dec. 16 (UPI)—A $500,000 fire swept a plant of the Ford Motor Co.'s big Rouge factory last night, destroying materials for 200 automobiles. Alert workers quickly put wheels on more than a score of Mercury cars on the assembly line and rolled them to safety. No one was injured. With 3,800 employees laid off temporarily, Ford officials and firemen continued an investigation today to learn the cause of the fire and the full extent of damage. The fire broke out in the upholstery department of an assembly line.

ICE CREAM PARTY FOR PIGTAIL SET

Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer, lots of ice cream and gingerbread boys make a hilarious Christmas party for the pigtail set.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Staff Writer

To make the Merry Christmas party for the pigtail set a dazzling success, simply supply all the ice cream they want to eat, and a touch of novelty such as gingerbread men. So pile the ice cream high! It's a food like milk or bread and butter and a valuable addition to a child's diet. Be lavish with gingerbread boys! Each small guest will want to take one home. And introduce Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer, a hilarious new game. Then you're off to a how of a party.

Gingerbread Boys

(About 2 dozen)

Four cups flour,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt,  $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon baking soda, 1 tablespoon ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar,  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup shortening,  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup dark molasses, 1 egg, well beaten. Mix and sift flour, salt soda and spices. Add sugar, mix, add shortening and blend it in with the fingers or a fork. Mix the egg and molasses and stir into the mixture to make a stiff dough. If necessary, add a little more molasses, but keep the dough stiff. Chill for 30 minutes. Roll out to a scant  $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch thickness on a lightly floured baking sheet, or on the back of an inverted shallow pan. Cut out gingerbread men with cutter; remove surrounding dough which may be re-rolled. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 10 minutes. Cool and decorate with the following icing.

Decorator's Icing

One teaspoon butter,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup confectioners' sugar, 2 teaspoons hot milk,  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon vanilla.

Blend butter into sugar. Stir in hot milk, then vanilla. May be used with pastry tube.

NEW HURLEY

New Hurley, Dec. 15.—The Missionary Society was entertained at the home of Mrs. Clarence Spencer last Thursday afternoon. A Christmas program was given led by Mrs. Elmer Fries who replaced Mrs. Alfred Wager who was unable to attend. Several readings were given by members of the society. Mrs. Charles Jenkins and Mrs. Albert Cronk had arranged a food sale and also had made a pie chowder to sell. Proceeds from the sale amounted to $32. Fifteen members were present at the meeting. At the close of the meeting a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Spencer. The January meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gerow Wilkin.

The Young Women's Club held its December meeting at the home of Mrs. Alfred Wager Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Edwin Nelson as the assistant hostess. The president, Mrs. Otto Hadley, presided. Mrs. Lawrence Dolan gave a Christmas reading. There was a large attendance at the meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Booth have been entertaining Mrs. Booth's sister from New York.

Mrs. Bertha Denniston of New Paltz was a recent dinner guest at the home of her sister-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerow Wilkin and son.

Miss Bertha Sutton and Mrs. Earl DeWitt and daughter, Janice, of Gardiner, spent Saturday in New York city.

The Ladies' Aid Society Thanksgiving offering amounted to $124.75. The Thanksgiving Eve offering which amounted to $142.58 for the Reformed Church Relief Fund was received by the consistory.

Miss Bertha Sutton was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Wright at Gardiner on Sunday. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Miss Sutton enjoyed an airplane ride with Ted Wright as pilot. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powell also were callers at the Wright home on Sunday.

A missionary service was held in the New Hurley Church last Sunday morning with Miss Wilhelmina Noordyk as the speaker. In the evening a mass meeting was held in the Walden Reformed Church with the Rev. Mr. Inbanathan and Dr. Shafer as the speakers. Several from here attended this service.

Miss Wilhelmina Noordyk was a week-end guest at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. John W. Tyse. N. T. Cocks was a visitor in New Paltz on Sunday and attended the candlelight service at the Reformed Church.

The New Hurley Sunday school Christmas entertainment will be held in the church Thursday, December 23, at 8 p. m.

Grange Asks Aid To Extend Security To Farm Workers

Lake Placid, N. Y., Dec. 16 (AP)—The New York State Grange was asked today to throw its support behind Social Security for farmers and farm labor.

A resolution urging such a stand was introduced at the organization's annual convention by the Chautauqua County Grange.

The resolution, if approved, would reverse the position of the 142,000 member farm organization, which previously has opposed extension of Social Security to agricultural workers.

The resolution was among more than 75 handed delegates for decision today and tomorrow, the final day of the Grange's 76th annual convention.

The resolutions embraced a wide range of subjects, including state aid for education and agriculture, the state fair, highways, health and public welfare.

State Grange Master, Henry D.

Sherwood, in an address to the convention's opening session Tuesday, asked the Grange to reconsider its opposition to Social Security for farmers. He recommended that a "thorough study" be made of the subject.

Among resolutions reported favorably to the convention by committees was one advocating the admission to the United States of displaced persons who "wish to pursue the occupation of agriculture."

Also receiving committee approval was a resolution opposing a state wide sales tax.

At least 12 county Granges submitted resolution on the state fair. All asked that the fair be staged on a "full-scale" and most urged that it be held at its present site adjoining the Solvay Chemical Works in Syracuse.

The fair was discontinued during the war but resumed this year on a limited scale.

The resolution was among more than 75 handed delegates for decision today and tomorrow, the final day of the Grange's 76th annual convention.

The resolutions embraced a wide range of subjects, including state aid for education and agriculture, the state fair, highways, health and public welfare.

Santa Claus Banished

Hathorne, Pa., Dec. 16 (AP)—The Hathorne Chamber of Commerce has banished Santa Claus from a place of glory on Main street to an inconspicuous spot behind a gas station. Don't get excited, though, kids, for the Santa Claus in this case is a thing of chicken wire, muslin and plaster of paris. The Chamber of Commerce explained yesterday that the Santa Claus figure was created in hopes of bringing cheer to the community's children and instilling the Christmas spirit in the hearts of the group as well. The 15-foot replica of St. Nicholas was installed on Main street several days ago, but the public reaction, the chamber said, was one of horror and fright rather than joy. It seems, the chamber said, that Santa was slightly wall-eyed, had a "repulsive leer" and a nose that "looked like a hot water bottle."

30 Persons Killed In Bogota Crackup

of fireworks were found near the wreckage.

Fireworks are popular during the Christmas season on Colombia, but are banned from transport in planes.

"The right wing of the plane appears to have come off by an explosion and was burned together with the fuselage," a Lanza statement said.

Will Pay for Dog

Atlanta, Dec. 16 (AP)—City Council has been asked to approve a $58 hospital bill for a dog, Major, the dog in question, leaped from the roof of the five-story police building when police sought to place him in a cage after arresting his master, for drunkenness a month ago. The council's police committee recommended that the city foot the bill.

The plane, a two-engine DC-3 was en route from Bogota to Barranquilla. It carried a crew of four and 26 passengers. Two stewardesses were aboard.

Drugless Health!

NO MATTER how long you have been suffering from stomach, kidney and rheumatic distress, and what drugs you have tried before, you can, now, hope for relief if you take GEO-MINERAL. With your eyes SEE the results given days after you start taking it.

DRUGLESS. Chemicals cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil. ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers, on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to get cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there regularly those years.

WE HAVE all heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Theron in ancient Greece, where, according to legend Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results

WATCH your elimination from day to day or the day after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste, black as coal, will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste coming out of your kidneys, and feel the relief. Be sure to watch for a few days for the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the intestines. It gets down to the root, cleaning and purifying, throwing away poisons—gas, toxins and bloating...Not like physics, oils and cathartics do, but in a Natural, harmless, safe way.

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE you to try GEO-MINERAL. Go to your drug store NOW and get one bottle. Use it seven days. If you are not 100 percent satisfied we will refund your money in full.

TAX FREE! It may be the remedy you NEED! And making the best investment for your health. It may do wonders for you—make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Bridge has won another convert, Phil Brito, the star of the picture "The Music Man," has taken up bridge to keep peace in the family. Phil says that his wife has put the dinner on pinocchio and gin, runny.

He should make a good bridge player because he applies himself completely to everything he does. I have just heard his new recording of "Bella Bella Marie," a song he introduces in "The Music Man." If he does as well at bridge as he does with this song, he will soon become a champ.

A good lesson hand came up while I was showing Phil a few little tricks in the play of the hand. He wanted to open the bidding on this hand with a spade, but I told him that a diamond bid is a better opening in this case. When North bids two clubs, it is all right for South to jump to three no trump to show a strong hand.

Phil won the opening lead of the queen of spades with the ace and correctly led the eight of clubs, playing the deuce from dummy. East won with the queen and returned the eight of spades, on which Phil correctly played the three-spot. He won the next spade lead with the king, led the five of clubs and put on the seven from dummy.

East won the trick with the ace, returned the six of diamonds and Phil went up with the king. Now all he had to do was to lead a small heart to dummy's ace and run the balance of the clubs. These, with the king of hearts and the high diamond, gave him four no trump.

When Phil asked if he had played the hand right, I said that he had, but not his opponents. We spread the hand out and the mistake was obvious. East should not have won the first club trick, but should have played the three-spot. Then when Phil continued with the second club, East could have won it with the queen, and there would have been no way for declarer to establish the club suit while he still had an entry into dummy to use them.

Sees Chance for Peace
Boston, Dec. 16 (AP)—Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, sees some chance for final world peace. He also is optimistic about the outlook in Palestine. The U.N. executive carried those impressions away from the Paris meeting, which, he said, accomplished "very much in the social and economic field." Lie landed in Boston when the plane carrying him from Paris to New York was diverted because of bad weather. He left last night by train for New York.

The half million Irish in New York city represent more Irish than there are in the city of Dublin.

Wilson Would Be Assembly Leader Replacing Mailer

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 16 (UPI)—Malcolm Wilson, Yonkers Republican, says his bid for the 1949 Assembly majority leadership is not a "challenge to Governor Dewey's leadership."

Wilson, who was elected this year to his sixth Assembly term, was endorsed for the leadership post Tuesday by Westchester county's five other legislators. The county Republican committee's executive group previously announced its support of Wilson.

The two moves stirred considerable interest in state political circles. Some politicos viewed the action as an indication of a campaign against Leo B. Muller of Cornwall, the 1948 leader.

Muller, a strong Dewey supporter, has had the governor's backing.

In an interview last night, Wilson described the endorsements as "only an expression of desire by the folks down here that they want me as the majority leader."

However, another source indicated the move was prompted by a desire for a change.

Wilson said there had been "rumor, reasonably persistent," that Leo Muller was going to receive some appointment.

And, Wilson added, if a new leader should be needed, he is "ready and willing."

When asked about the Wilson endorsements, Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck of Schenectady said he thought the Westchester legislators were "trying to get a little recognition for Wilson."

Heck Due as Speaker
Heck is expected to be re-elected speaker at the next session. The majority leader is appointed by the speaker.

Heck declined to comment on the possibility of an anti-Dewey movement in the Westchester development.

A Westchester Republican sympathetic to Wilson said there was a "feeling that if the Republican party was going to do anything in the 1950 gubernatorial campaign, it had to get an articulate floor leader."

The source, who asked that his name not be used, said "the salvation of our party requires it."

He added that "other considerations" also made many G.O.P. assemblymen want new leadership.

Fox Rabies Parley For 3 States Held

New York, Dec. 16 (UPI)—Representatives of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania conferred yesterday on steps to halt the spread of fox rabies in New York state.

J. Victor Skoff, New York deputy conservation commissioner, told the meeting, the first interstate conference on rabies, that 4,000 foxes have been caught by conservation trappers in the past year.

John Wilson, New York coordinator of the rabies program, reported that 23 New York counties have remained infected with rabies since the disease reached epidemic proportions in 1946.

New Jersey and Pennsylvania have had less severe fox rabies outbreaks.

Most of the Republican leadership comes from upstate areas he said. Downstate legislators, he added, want representation. Muller also lives in a southern county.

Wilson's endorsements, the source continued, were made "only in the hope of persuading certain leaders that a change should be made."

Westchester Republicans, made no effort, he said, to get support for Wilson either in the Assembly or in upstate political circles.

Wilson denied that the endorsements were any indication of a "protest" against the existing state system of giving financial aid to schools.

Adjustments Sought

However, he said the county's legislators — three senators and six assemblymen, all Republicans — were anxious for adjustments in the Friedsam apportionment formula under which school aid is allotted.

Because of its high realty assessments, Westchester receives a comparatively small amount of aid under the formula.

The Westchester legislators said Tuesday they would sponsor bills to boost state aid for their district.

In upstate Republican circles, considerable unrest has been reported since Dewey engineered the defeat of the Young Minnie bill in the 1948 Legislature. The bill would have increased state aid to schools by $103,000,000.

A substitute measure, endorsed by Dewey, granted an increase of $56,000,000.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Dec. 16—Otis Wright, Shokan resident who died in St. Petersburg, Fla., Wednesday morning, was raised in the old village and was well known in this section. A house painter by trade, he had made his home in Schenectady for many years before returning to Olive. His wife, the former Edna Bush, died two years ago. Surviving Mr. Wright are his daughter, Lillian Pfister, the latter's two daughters, Anna and Ruth, all of Schenectady, and Mrs. Elizabeth Boles of Kingston, a sister. First cousins of Otis include George and Elizabeth Giles and Cora Wardell, all of Shokan, and Grace Davis of Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Vandenberg of Scarsdale were at their mountain road place last Sunday. Mrs. Vandenberg recently spent some time at Auburn, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Loughran expect to go to Albany on Thursday or this week to attend a concert by the Yale Glee Club. Roger in 1910 was one of the tenors of this famous organization and accompanied the club on its annual 10-days holiday tour.

Coming birthdays include that of Alfred Iupaco, December 18. Alfred was born in New York and came to Shokan 15 years ago. A N. Y. Central R. R. employee, he is married to the former Elizabeth Brown of Almond and they have two sons.

ning next July 6 "added up to more than $30,000,000,000."This was scaled down to $15, 000,000,000 only by "the most earnest effort" by Secretary of Defense Forrestal and a specific directive from President Truman, the report said.4. Relate scientific research more closely to strategic planning.

Glaring Deficiencies

The failure to have war planning geared to feasible scientific developments was said to constitute "one of the most glaring deficiencies in the whole panorama of the National Security Organization."The joint chiefs of staff (the commanders of army, navy and air force) "felt that their strategic responsibility must not be impaired, yet the simple fact is that the joint chiefs of staff is not now equipped for technical evaluation." Such evaluation requires scientific analysis "of a sort not generally found in uniform."(Forrestal yesterday announced the creation of a joint chiefs research board group on weapons evaluation.)5. Speed up plans for civilian mobilization in case of war, including economic, industrial and manpower mobilization. In another section, the committee said the condition of the nation's stockpile of strategic materials needed for a war is "deplorable."6. Make adequate provision for use of and protection against "unconventional means of warfare." This includes "not only the atom bomb, but the other radiological and biological and chemical weapons that have appeared, definitely and terribly, upon the horizon of warfare."The committee exposed some skeletons in the military's closet.

Disturbing Inadequacies

In discussing "disturbing inadequacies in our intelligence system," the committee disclosed:"In the spring of 1948, a mistaken intelligence estimate, prepared by a departmental intelligence agency, stimulated recommendations—which if followed—might well have had serious consequences. Fortunately, in this instance, the Central Intelligence Agency and other intelligence groups correctly evaluated the available information in good time."Neither the incident nor the identity of the particular intelligence agency was disclosed.Also, in talking about need for a better inventory system, the committee said the army reported it had 25,000 tanks left over at the end of the war, "but was able to account to the committee for only about 16,000 tanks. It was unable to state what became of the others."The action is brought by Stang to recover damages.Three cases were settled on the call of the day calendar this morning and since no case was ready for trial, Justice Bookstein adjourned
the court until next Tuesday at 10 o'clock when the juries will return.
Two actions brought by Harry and Jean Kames against
the Bull Markets, Inc., negligence,
will be the first cases on the calendar Tuesday.Announced settled were the following:No. 161, Margraf and Decker,
Inc., against Harry D. Balyeat,
negligence.No. 194, John R. Battiloro
against William A. Kelly, negligence.No. 223, Henry Hung against Joseph Fitzsimmons, negligence.Justice Bookstein announced that any juror who desired to have compensation for attendance upon
the court up until this time be paid at this time "in order to do some Christmas shopping" might have the checks today. The full compensation for the balance of the term will be paid at the adjournment
of the term.The grand jury is still in session
and will not report until later
next week.Court recessed until Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

Court Is Asked

set up by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, supreme occupation commander.Perlman disputed this argument and said furthermore the American court has "no power to review such military and political decisions" of the President as his agreement with the wartime allies
to punish war criminals.The high court set aside three hours for today's arguments, an hour more than customary. After listening to the debate, the justices likely will take up the cases in their regular closed conference
on Saturday.Their decision may be announced Monday or, if not then,
on the court's next opinion-reading day, January 3.

Action Is Withheld

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 16 (AP)—
The American Farm Bureau
Federation withheld action today
on the controversial issue of repeal
of oleomargarine taxes. The Bureau's resolutions committee debated the question at length but finally wound up voting to take no
stand, paralleling procedure at last year's convention.

today the entire St. Lawrence dual-purpose seaway and power project would be re-submitted to the next Congress.The department said it would be "appropriate" for the government to transmit New York's application to the international joint commission at this time.The joint commission must approve water projects affecting Canada and the United States.President Truman said last week he was against the proposed New York-Ontario plan. He said he would push for congressional approval of the dual-purpose proposal.Dewey said "one fact that many people seem to miss is that the development of the water power by Ontario and New York would not delay or impede the seaway, but would enormously help it."The governor said he had not received a copy of the letter which the State Department announced
it had sent to the State Power Authority.He added, however, that "I don't know what grounds there could be for the failure to act upon it favorably."Dewey said development of the power phase of the St. Lawrence project would "simply remove some $450,000,000 from the burden of the federal government" in constructing the entire dual-purpose seaway.He said that he understood the cost of the entire seaway "was cutting down the defense appropriations necessary for the nation's security."

Stang Sues Caunitz

was unable to reach his appointed destination. An emergency landing was attempted in the dark at Schenectady and the plane over-shot the landing strip and crashed
some distance from the field.
Stang suffered injuries and Ca-unitz sustained a severe injury to his foot but was commended by the airport officers for the manner in which he avoided a more serious accident.The action is brought by Stang
to recover damages.Three cases were settled on the
call of the day calendar this morning and since no case was ready
for trial, Justice Bookstein adjourned
the court until next Tuesday at 10 o'clock when the juries will return.
Two actions brought by Harry and Jean Kames against
the Bull Markets, Inc., negligence,
will be the first cases on the
calendar Tuesday.Announced settled were the following:No. 161, Margraf and Decker,
Inc., against Harry D. Balyeat,
negligence.No. 194, John R. Battiloro
against William A. Kelly, negligence.No. 223, Henry Hung against Joseph Fitzsimmons, negligence.Justice Bookstein announced
that any juror who desired to have compensation for attendance upon
the court up until this time be paid at this time "in order to do
some Christmas shopping" might have the checks today. The full compensation for the balance of the term will be paid at the adjournment
of the term.The grand jury is still in session
and will not report until later
next week.Court recessed until Tuesday at 10 o'clock.

Court Is Asked

set up by Gen. Douglas MacAr-
thur, supreme occupation commander.Perlman disputed this argument and said furthermore the American court has "no power to review such military and political decisions" of the President as his
agreement with the wartime allies
to punish war criminals.The high court set aside three hours for today's arguments, an hour more than customary. After listening to the debate, the justices
likely will take up the cases in
their regular closed conference
on Saturday.Their decision may be announced Monday or, if not then,
on the court's next opinion-reading day, January 3.

Action Is Withheld

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 16 (AP)—
The American Farm Bureau
Federation withheld action today
on the controversial issue of repeal
of oleomargarine taxes. The Bureau's resolutions committee debated the question at length but
finally wound up voting to take no
stand, paralleling procedure at last year's convention.

sities, apparently without much opposition. Robert Winter, Crawfordsville, Ind., a Tsinghua professor, telephoned friends here he thought the Reds, well-equipped and assured, would move into Peiping within a day or two.

The Communist soldiers he came across were neither unfriendly nor friendly. Winter reported: just indifferent.

The Nationalists gave up Fengtai on the Peiping-Tientsin railroad, 3 1/2 miles from the south-western corner of the city. The Marco Polo Bridge became a war prize again as it fell to the Reds. It was there, eight miles southwest of Peiping, that the Sino-Japanese war started in July, 1937.

There were many strange twists in the unfolding struggle for Peiping—which may be more political than military.

Government troops in full regalia moved out of the city. Others, also with full equipment, marched in. Peiping was full of troops who might have been out fighting but instead were sightseeing in a holiday mood.

And in the midst of it all, Belgian Consul Roger Melenbreau gave a cocktail party. The guests had to be content with candles and kerosene lamps for illumination, but there were cocktails. Melenbreau wanted them to meet his English bride, the former Daphne Leach.

Officials walked out of Peiping's power plant, outside the city itself, but left workmen behind. They said the Communists promised to keep the power lines humming—but the lights went out last night anyway.

Symmington Died
Of Natural Causes

Daniel Symmington of 528 Broadway, who was pronounced dead on arrival at the Kingston Hospital shortly before noon Wednesday, died of a natural cause, Coroner Ernest A. Kelly said today.

The local man, an employee of the Terry Brick Corp., was at work when he was seized with the sudden illness yesterday morning. Fellow workmen rushed him to the hospital in a car, and Coroner Kelly was notified after he was pronounced dead.

The coroner said death was due to coronary occlusion.

A Carr & Son is in charge of funeral arrangements and said today they would be announced later.

Hiss Denies . . .

Hiss stole secrets of the famous Norden bomb, sight and passed them along to Russia in 1938.

In the grand jury indictment handed down in New York, Hiss was accused of having sworn falsely (a) that he did not give secret State Department papers to Whittaker Chambers a decade ago and (b) that he did not talk to the confessed former Communist spy ring courier during February of 1938 and March of 1938.

Hiss issued a statement insisting his testimony had been true.

But, even as the committee switched its main efforts away from the Hiss-Chambers case, it turned loose 26 more documents it said were among those Chambers claimed he got from Hiss.

These covered such then top-secret information as a possible trade treaty with Germany, Japanese troop movements, efforts of some top Nazis to persuade Hitler not to move prematurely against Czecho-Slovakia and Japanese efforts to raise money in the United States.

Only two of the documents were reproduced from the microfilm Chambers fished out of a pumpkin on his Maryland farm two weeks ago. The rest were among papers Chambers turned over to attorneys preparing for the trial of Hiss' $75,000 libel suit against him.

The paper dealing with a possible German trade treaty—a memorandum which referred several times to the approaching 1938 and 1940 elections—was cited by Rep. Mundt (R-S.D.), acting committee chairman, as proof of his contention that American foreign policy sometimes is "influenced" by domestic politics.

from Poughkeepsie to Rhinebeck and Red Hook, according to the report. Both vehicles were going north.

The bus, driven by Edward Charles Schuler, swerved to the west side of the road after striking the Anderson School vehicle and came to rest against the embankment, Sheriff Close said. Schuler, the driver, received contusions and abrasions to his left side. Porter and Mrs. Wolfinger, the two severely injured persons, were passengers in the Twilight Line bus, while the three youths hospitalized were among the seven students in the other vehicle, the sheriff said.

Rushed to Hospital

The more seriously injured were rushed to the hospital by ambulances from Rhinebeck, while sheriff's department men commanded private automobiles to take the others to the hospital for treatment.

Investigation of the accident is continuing under Sheriff Close, State Trooper Gross of Hyde Park, and Deputy Sheriff Bacon.

Brennan and Rumpf. No arrests have been made.

Schuler told Sheriff Close that he was unable to see the tall light of the other vehicle because of the heavy snow which was falling at the time, the sheriff reported.

Needs Reports Work Stoppage

Drivers of at least one local motor express were reported on a "work stoppage" today as the result of what was said to be "contract" dissatisfaction.

The office of Necces Express, Inc., 25 South Manor avenue, said that drivers here left their jobs at noon Wednesday. Their action, it was indicated, was not considered a strike.

Three other motor express concerns quiesced said their men had not left their jobs, but one indicated that an walkout might take place.

The concerns, who said their drivers were still at work, are: Roberts Motor Express, 335 East Chester street; Styles Express, 71 Ten Broeck Avenue; and Van's Auto Express, Albany, and Avenue extension.

Anthony Iordan, president of Local 445, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Newburgh, which it was said, has jurisdiction over the mid-Hudson area, could not be reached today for a statement.

An unofficial source indicated, however, that the union's contract expired on September 3, and that stoppages in isolated instances resulted in the failure of concerns to sign the new contract.

Eleven Persons Killed

Bearers were David Roach, Edward Phalen, Thomas Murphy, Edward Hoffman, Patrick Dolan and Charles DuBois.

Would Strengthen Selves

Syracuse, N.Y., Dec. 16 (P)—Leftist elements in the state C.I.O. sought today to strengthen their position at the organization's annual convention after an initial setback at an executive board meeting. The 35-man board yesterday, in a pre-convention session, approved a measure condemning all third party political movements as detrimental to the best interests of labor.

Engineer Released

Athens, Dec. 16 (P)—Carl A. Graessner, American engineer abducted by Communist guerrillas Dec. 8, was released today in the foothills of Mount Olympus. Graessner, of Portland, Ore., was released near the village of Tempe, 20 miles north of Larisa. Graessner was the second American abducted by the rebels and later freed. Francis L. McShane of Newburgh, N.Y., was kidnapped in the Peloponnesus last month and released after 12 days.

Tasty Sandwiches

Egg salad sandwiches are especially delicious when the chopper or mashed hard-cooked eggs are mixed with finely cut celery or green pepper and a little crisply cooked crumbled bacon. Moisten the filling with mayonnaise or creamy-type salad dressing, to which a bit of onion juice has been added.

Makes Quick Icing

Make a quick-icing for an 8 or 9 inch square of plain white cake by melting two or three tablespoons of butter or margarine in a skillet and adding a third cup of brown sugar; mix well over low heat, then add a cup of shredded coconut. Spread over the surface of the cake and toast carefully in the broiler.

Area Not Designed For Factories

College Club Told
"Our mountains are designed for remaking man. We can never associate these mountains with factories," Edward Huben told the College Women's Club Tuesday night as he discussed the merits of Ulster county. He advocated promoting the area as a recreational center and playground for vacationers.

In speaking to the club he pointed out several industries which flourished from time to time in the county's history but which have since died out. Among these were the tannery, hoop making, cement at Rosendale and bluestone, the building of the Delaware and Hudson canal to draw coal from Pennsylvania.

He blamed the indifference of the people for the slump in the tourist trade, which he believes is the greatest business of the county. He urged promotion of the scenic beauty and restful atmosphere of the area. He noted that tourists in one season purchased 19 million dollars worth of merchandise in the food lines in this community.

During the meeting which was held at the First Dutch Reformed Church House two new members were welcomed, Mrs. Bernard Mizel, graduate of Hood College, and Miss Shirley Levine, an associate member from Keuka and Bryant colleges.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James E. Tobin, chairman; Mrs. Herbert Greenwald, Miss Genevieve Grovjah, Miss Ione Kinkade, Miss Mary Kelly, Miss Elma Kullman, Mrs. Susanne Langer, Mrs. John A. McCullough, and Miss Isabelle Malone.

The next meeting will be January 11 when Dr. Mildred Dawson will speak on Coordinating Kings Schools.

Annual Broadcast Of Christmas Music From KHS Tomorrow

The annual broadcast of Christmas carols from Kingston High School will take place Friday at 2:30 p.m. over Station WINY. A chorus of 220 voices under the direction of Leonard Stine will lead the assembly. There will be two anthems by the A Cappella Chorale, and several incidental solos as well.

The carols to be sung by the ensemble group include Silent Night, O Come All Ye Faithful, We Three Kings, It Came Upon a Midnight Clear, Hark the Herald Angels Sing, Joy to the World, O Little Town of Bethlehem, First Noel and Deck the Halls.

The choir will sing Hodie Christus Natus Est by Willard and The Shepherd's Story by Dickinson. Incidental solos will be sung by Miss Dolores Reina, Richard Baker and Alex R. Waland. Roy Boldt will accompany on the organ and Miss Alice C. Millong and Miss Ramona Leonard will be at the pianos.

During the meeting which was held at the First Dutch Reformed Church House two new members were welcomed, Mrs. Bernard Mizel, graduate of Hood College, and Miss Shirley Levine, an associate member from Keuka and Bryant colleges.

Grade School Musicians Entertain Classmates And Home for Aged With Music of the Season

The grade school music ensemble under the direction of Miss Lulu Roberts of the music faculty today completed a tour of the grade schools. A special concert was given also at the Home for the Aged Tuesday afternoon.

The program included selections suitable to the season with several violin and viola solos, compositions for viola and cello as well as for the entire ensemble.

At each school those students who were advanced enough in their instrumental lessons joined with the ensemble in playing the concert.

Students also joined in singing the familiar songs.

Accompanying the ensemble at the piano were Miss Carol Nelson, a student at Crane School of Music, Potsdam State Teachers College, who is doing her cadet teaching in the Kingston system; also Cameron Ryland, a pupil at School No. 2. Michael Muller was staging manager and George Dahl and Robert McGreevy, announcers.

The ensemble included Michael Muller, Edward Granberg, Robert Shellenberger, Robert McGreevy, David Schwartz, Lois Brown, Mary Smith, Deena Cherrick, Virginia Whittaker, Jane Gunter, Joan Warrington, Phyllis Hutton, violins;

Nancy Day, Betty Tellier, violas;

Dorothy Maines, cello;

Robert Tellier, Lee Herrington, Clifford Miller, Frank Jones, David Brown, clarinet;

Theodore Marable, trombone;

Kenneth Panburn, Robert Bonner, Robert McNierney, trumpet;

Ronald Dittus, Robert Paulus, percussion.

Others who joined the group at the various schools were Betty Winters, William Bruck, John Tomaseski, Mary Flore, Lance Lasher, John and Louis Roberti,

Sickler's Delivery Edge Monties in Last 30 Seconds, 59 to 56

Houghtaling, Bloom Settle Close Game; Albany Scores 18

A last 30-second foul conversion by "Snitch" Houghtaling and a quick two-pointer by lanky George Bloom gave Sickler's Delivery a 59 to 56 squeaker victory over the Monticello Legionnaires Wednesday night at the municipal auditorium in a regular Orange-Sullivan League basketball tussle.

After both clubs exchanged slim leads in the final quarter the scoreboard showed just 30 seconds left with the game knotted at 36-all. Then Houghtaling looped in the charity stripe conversion putting the locals ahead by 37-36. After the Monties tried three desperate shots at the basket, Bloom retrieved the ball and clicked for a lay-up to give Sickler's the close decision.

Trailing 29 to 28 at half-time, the Monties, paced by Mort Kaplan, erstwhile All-DUSO great, and Dan Stuyvesant, made it a sham-bang affair right up until the final gun.

Albany Paces Club

Tony Albany, former All-DUSO for Kingston, who led both clubs in the scoring column with 18 markers, gave the Deliverymen the needed lift in the third canto with some spectacular set shooting.

Bloom and Andy Murphy followed Albany in the scoring parade for the locals with 14 and 13 points respectively. Stuyvesant collected 16 for Monticello while Kaplan bucketed an even dozen points.

Last night's victory for Sickler's gave them a 2 and 2 record for the year and settled an earlier defeat at the hands of Monticello. The Mountaineers scored a 44 to 43 win over Kingston a week ago.

Prelim Result

In the preliminary last night Ray's Riversiders, trailing 12 points at the third quarter, pulled out to score a 48 to 44 victory over the Village Rest. Van Wagner, center for the winners, pushed in 24 points. Doyle was high for the losers with 14.

Dodgers Send Pete Reiser to Boston For M. McCormick

Harold "Pete" Reiser, the oft-injured and ailing outfielder of the Brooklyn Dodgers, was traded to the Boston Braves yesterday in exchange for Mike McCormick, outfielder, and an unnamed player. The deal was completed after the major league meetings in Chicago had finished.

Reiser, a former chattel in the St. Louis Cardinal organization, batted a mere .235 last year in 64 games. McCormick wound up with a .303 average in 115 games, the first time that he reached .300 or better since he came up with the Cincinnati Reds in 1940.

Given word of the trade in St. Louis yesterday, Reiser said, "I think it will do me a lot of good to make the change." It's a good break," Pete added. "Then, too, I like the idea of playing for Billy Southworth."

The All-Conference team is unique in that it doesn't include Glenn Dobbs of the Los Angeles Dons, who won the total offense championship and set a new all-time league record for punting. He also set a number of individual records.

The All-American All-Conference (votes in parentheses):

First team:

End—Mac Speciale, Cleveland (54 1/2).

End—Alyn Reals, San Francisco (49).

Tackle—Lou Rymkus, Cleveland (45 1/2).

Tackle—Bob Reinhart, Los Angeles (38).

Guard—Dick Barwegen, Baltimore (46).

Guard—Bill Willis, Cleveland (33).

Center—Bob Nelson, Los Angeles (32).

Quarterback—Otto Graham, Cleveland (46).

Halfback—John Strykalski, San Francisco (48 1/2).

Halfback—Chet Mutry, Buffalo (45 1/2).

Fullback—Marion Motley, Cleveland (57).

Browns Place Five On Conference 11

New York, Dec. 16 (AP)—The champion Cleveland Browns, who defend their title Sunday against Buffalo, placed five players on the All-Conference team of the All America Football Conference.

The team was chosen by the A.A.C. from a poll of coaches, sports writers and broadcasters.

Cleveland dominated the first eleven by placing powerized Marion Motley at fullback, T-Master Otto Graham at quarterback, Mac Speedie at end, Lou Rymkus at tackle and Bill Willis at guard.

The west coast member of the three-year-old circuit—San Francisco and Los Angeles—were honored with two men each on the selection and the other spots went to Baltimore and Buffalo.

Grayson Urges Youth to Remain Athletically-Minded, KAA Hears

countries," Grayson said, "because it's too tough for them."

He dwelled at length on the recent Olympics which he covered for NEA and painted a dark picture of present living conditions and standards in Europe. His description of England and a typical cricket match had his listeners rolling in the aisles.

Concerning sports of the moment, he blasted the two platoon system as creating only a "half football" player. He pointed out that the best 11 men on any squad should be the varsity and saw no real enjoyment for a youngster who played four years of "defensive tackle."

Predicts Tribe Pennant

Switching to baseball, Grayson predicted that the Cleveland Indians had assured themselves of another pennant by the acquisition of Mickey Vernon and Early Wynn from the Washington Senators. The Indians may have been "out-traded" when they sent Red Embree, Sherman Lollar and Red Starr to St. Louis for Fred Sanford. William Johnston, of New York, son of James J. Johnston, former prominent boxing figure, accompanied Grayson to Kingston. He was introduced and spoke briefly.

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark., was second in the best-ball with 194, followed by Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., with 196 and Chick Harbert of Detroit with 197.

Vanderbilt Back Holds Punt Return Record

New York, Dec. 16 (AP)—Painstaking persistence paid off for 182-pound Lee Nalley of Vanderbilt as he led the major college footballers in punt returns in 1948.

Nalley finished third last year and still has another year to go.

During the past season he jugged back 43 enemy punts for 791 yards, or an average of 18.4 yards per try in breaking two records held by Bill Geyer of Colgate since 1941.

Geyer's high season mark of 616 yards was surpassed, as was his two-year total of 1,008 yards on 69 runbacks. In two years Nalley has returned 77 for 1,197 yards, and with another season left, bids fair to carve a niche in the record books for quite a spell.

Billy Gregus gave Wake Forest its second national championship of the year. Gregus edged John Freeman of Portland University to win kickoff-return laurels with 503 yards in 19 tries. Freeman's yardage was identical, but he required 21 upfield jaunts.

Bagatelles:

While outside promoters are clamoring to install a professional basketball team in Kingston, a pretty fair league—the Orange-Sullivan—is going to pot right before our eyes. Len Sickler says the Delivermen will play out the schedule but those haunted houses make it mighty discouraging for the players. We don't think Kingman fans are giving the O.S. League a fair shake. Maybe the high school is too much competition.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

The burghers of Oneonta were stunned by St. Lawrence's 61-39 rout of the undefeated Hartwick College Warriors last week-end. . . . Just one of those things, because the Warriors rebounded to scalp Champlain College, 63-49 at Plattsburgh. . . . Newburgh Free Academy plans a big production in technicolor when the Academians snap Kingston's winning streak on January 18 at the Hill City. . . . Sparkie Williams, a new Negro, dribbling sensation, is being hailed as the man most likely to lead N.F.A. out of the basketball bullrushes. . . . "Bo" Gill says he is so fast it will take a cross-eyed guard to catch him. . . . We wouldn't be surprised if Snyder J. Gage, the Newburgh principal, declared a legal holiday for the students—if N.F.A. wins.

If Kingston High is taking the initiative to "invite" Poughkeepsie High back into the DUSO family, as is reported in other cities, it's news in this neck of the woods.

Of Men and Mice:

John L. Sullivan must turn over in his grave when he hears about the current crop of "challengers" for Joe Louis' heavyweight title. . . . Walcott, Savoldi, Charles, Conn., Lesnevich, Woodcock.

Never has the boxing world been saddled with so much mediocrities and with so little chance to do anything about it. . . . If B'nai B'rith is seeking a real headliner, they don't have to look any farther than Johnny Saxton, Metropolitan A.A.U. 140-pounder, who wrecked Sid Barneson Tuesday night in Newburgh. Barneson carried a gaudy string of knockouts into the ring but was mesmerized in about 172 seconds of action. . . . The little lady of the house tells me that nothing is so gratifying to a wife as to see a double-chin on her husband's old flame. . . . No man realizes how little he knows until modern kids start asking questions. . . . Young Adam Flore, of Lindsley avenue, did himself proud on the M.J.M. radio forum on recreation.

VITAL STATISTICS: 4,076 people died of gas last year. 29 inhaled it. 47 put a lighted match to it. 4,000 stepped on it.

Jake Chichelsky's Corner:

We wonder who is the genius in the K.B.A. who thought up the idea of selling Booster tickets for the Kingston Bowling Association annual and miscellaneous items. . . . A little birdie says it's Gil Sampson and Jack Blinder. . . . It's hard to believe that Dot Flemings must give up bowling for an indefinite period. . . . It's really nice to see two sponsors come out to watch their teams in action. . . . Ray Nadal of Wiltwyck and Bill Scully of Dobler's had fifty yard line seats for the Wiltwyck-Dobler clash last Sunday. . . . It was billed as a titanic duel but wound up like a Booster League crucial. . . . Enough spares were missed to keep anybody's house in kindling wood for years. . . . Cliff Davis, Sr., is good house to be rolling in the Major League, but why isn't he? . . .

The one-time "Terrible Swede" of local bowling—Bruno Magnusson has developed into something of a mild sensation since taking up with his new five-fingered ball.

Errol, who throws a bender comparable to a cliff-pretzel, knocked off a 597 series with games 246-182-169 to pass the Central Rec circuit.

Steve Finschendorf, Jr., was ten pins behind, going in the other direction with 202 and 223 after a 162 opener. Mike Amato posted 197-540; Roy Webber 200-543; Star White 203-558; Carl Lundquist 232-547; (?) Costello 199-543; W. Davis 209-563; Carl Beatty 208-557; Pete Schline 221-584; L. Petersen, Sr. 203-558; Norm Sande 201-552; Ed Cunningham 223-559; Joe Colton 197-544.

The top woman bowler prospect of the season, Jo Lewis, achieved the best of three five-hundred triples in Friendship League with a rousing 547. She sandwiched a 142 with 180 and 225, the latter one of the best singles of the season.

Marge Jansen, former all-star kegler, who doesn't seem to rate all by statute since her semi-retirement was announced, managed to tuff and puff through a respectable 531 series. She stacked games of 169-172-190.

W. Van Smith finished off 160-154 with 201 and 215. Other better scores: E. Carpenter 185-481; Marge Van Alstyne 190-481; A. Maricle 171-481; Bea Barley 169-488; Rose Rhymer 165-473.

Court Order Is Issued On Veteran's Divorce

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 16 (AP)—The State Health Department is under court order to alter the death certificate of a war veteran to show that he still was married when he died. A divorce decree would have been final a month later.

Mrs. Gloria Delafield Hastings of Brooklyn obtained the order from State Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth so that she would be eligible for government benefits available to widows of ex-service men.

Her former husband, Rene Delafield, died January 1, 1947, in the Veterans' Administration Hospital at Sunmount. He had obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce in an uncontested action in Franklin county.

His death certificate listed him as divorced. Mrs. Hastings contended the decree could not have been final until February 2, 1947, because it was not filed until November 2, 1946. A divorce cannot become final in New York until three months after the interlocutory decree is entered.

The health department declined to alter the certificate without a judicial determination of the issue.

Will Tow Away Vehicles
White Plains, N. Y., Dec. 16 (AP)—The Westchester County Park Commission today announced that hereafter it will tow away, at the owners' expense, automobiles "abandoned in snow or sleet." George H. Haight, park superintendent, said that parkway snowplows were impeded last night by automobiles abandoned by their owners. The commission said the towing will be done by licensed trucks at rates based on mileage.

Would Continue Aid

Washington, Dec. 16 (AP)—Henry F. Grady, U. S. ambassador to Greece, said today President Truman is "quite in favor of continuing the whole program" of American aid to Greece. Grady made the statement to newsmen after a talk with Mr. Truman at the White House.

Dr. Seeley Goes Home

The Rev. Frank B. Seeley, pastor emeritus of the Fair Street Reformed Church, who has been a patient at the Kingston Hospital for the past several days, returned to his home on Malden Lane today.

Mrs. Gloria Delafield Hastings of Brooklyn obtained the order from State Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth so that she would be eligible for government benefits available to widows of ex-service men.

Her former husband, Rene Delafield, died January 1, 1947, in the Veterans' Administration Hospital at Sunmount. He had obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce in an uncontested action in Franklin county.

His death certificate listed him as divorced. Mrs. Hastings contended the decree could not have been final until February 2, 1947, because it was not filed until November 2, 1946. A divorce cannot become final in New York until three months after the interlocutory decree is entered.

The health department declined to alter the certificate without a judicial determination of the issue.

Will Tow Away Vehicles

White Plains, N. Y., Dec. 16 (AP)—The Westchester County Park Commission today announced that hereafter it will tow away, at the owners' expense, automobiles "abandoned in snow or sleet." George H. Haight, park superintendent, said that parkway snowplows were impeded last night by automobiles abandoned by their owners. The commission said the towing will be done by licensed trucks at rates based on mileage.

Council Will Hold Special Session

A special session of the Common Council will be held at 7:30 p. m. today to act on the firemen's pay boost claim and consider two other routine proposals.

Action on the pay-boost claim was necessary every two weeks following salary increases voted to firemen through referendum because no prior budgetary provision had been made.

This time the councilmen are expected to approve a claim of $306.33 and provide for including the amount in the 1949 budget.

Similar amounts were voted through at other sessions.

The aldermen will also receive a communication from the Board of Public Works concerning delinquent bills for cutting grass, and they are expected to audit and order paid bills received to date for December.

Cartel Suit Is Filed

Washington, Dec. 16 (AP)—The Justice Department said today it has filed a suit to break up an alleged world cartel in natural rubber products. Attorney General Clark announced the civil action was brought in the Federal District Court at Cleveland. He said it charges the existence of unlawful agreements which prevent the import into and the export from the United States of products manufactured from natural rubber, or latex. He said the complainants as defendants the United States Rubber Company of New York, Consolidated Rubber London, Dec. 16 (AP)—The British Navy is investigating damage to an aircraft carrier. One London newspaper said the vessel had been sabotaged and four others said sabotage was suspected.

An Admiralty announcement last night said a main engine of the 14,000-ton light Carrier Tribal had been damaged by steel bolts found in the oil pit of the engine's gearbox.

The announcement said "pending results of the investigation, no definite information can be given."

The carrier was scheduled to be turned over to Australia today.

Realtors Will Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Ulster County Real Estate Board will be held in the offices of A. J. Burns, 230 Wall street, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

A new regulation, effective Jan. 1, 1949, has been added to the sanitary code of the state.

Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, state health commissioner, said "to put the entire program in operation will mean the addition of new and often costly equipment in many hospitals."

"Nevertheless," he added, "many improved protective steps can be introduced with existing equipment."

Among the new measures are a reduction in the amount of handling of the infants to cut down the possibility of infection, and a program to urge hospitals either to limit the number of visitors to the maternity wards, or prohibit such visits altogether.

The department said that between 1942 and 1947 there had been 28 outbreaks of the disease among newborn infants in hospital nurseries. It said 618 babies were stricken and 62 died.

During the past year the State Medical Society, the Health Department and hospitals have revised the system of handling newborn children, the department said.
